

Bilingual Staff Attorney
Full-Time, Exempt
Seattle

<https://nwirp.org/join/jobs-internships/>

SUMMARY:

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) seeks a full-time bilingual Staff Attorney to work in the General Intake Unit as part of our Seattle office. Applicants must be fluent in English and Spanish, and additional languages are encouraged. The applicant must be able to start the position as soon as possible. A minimum two-year commitment to the position is expected.

As a staff attorney, you will offer direct representation, individual consultations, and community outreach and education to immigrant community members seeking immigration protections before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and immigration courts. You may also handle additional immigration matters, including cases involving individuals in immigration detention.

ABOUT NORTHWEST IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT:

Founded in 1984, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is a nationally-recognized legal services organization on the front lines of defending and advancing the rights of immigrants. With over 200 employees, NWIRP provides direct legal representation and assistance in immigration matters to thousands of people with low incomes who come from over 150 countries and speak over 60 different languages.

NWIRP challenges unjust policies through high-impact lawsuits and advocates for laws and policies that respect the rights of immigrants. NWIRP is also a trusted provider of immigration-related community education for immigrant communities and social service providers. NWIRP serves the community through four offices in Washington State (Granger, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee), but the impact of our work is felt nationwide.

NWIRP's General Intake (GI) Unit supports members of Washington's immigrant communities who might otherwise be unable to access NWIRP's legal services due to organizational capacity limitations. The GI Unit conducts comprehensive intakes and case assessments, provides legal advice and assistance, and refers individuals to other NWIRP units when appropriate. The Unit serves as the primary point of contact for community members who are not current NWIRP clients but seek assistance at the NWIRP-Seattle Office with an urgent legal matter or question.

Additionally, the GI Unit currently focuses on assisting community members with submitting various forms of relief before U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). These include, but are not limited to, Form I-765 applications to renew employment authorization under various eligibility categories; Form I-90 applications to renew Permanent Resident Cards; Form I-485 applications to adjust status to lawful permanent residence; and Form I-821 applications to obtain or renew Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for individuals who remain eligible.

The GI Unit seeks to expand its services by hiring a staff attorney to assist community members with the forms of relief described above, as well as additional forms of affirmative immigration relief before USCIS and defensive forms of relief for individuals in removal proceedings before the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR).
