

Temporary Legal Advocate
Full-Time, Non-Exempt
Wenatchee, WA

<https://nwirp.org/join/jobs-internships/>

SUMMARY:

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) seeks a temporary full-time bilingual Legal Advocate to work in our WA MASS unit as part of our Wenatchee, WA office. Applicants must be fluent in English and another language, with preference for Spanish, French, or Portuguese. The applicant must be able to start the position as soon as possible. A minimum one-year commitment is expected.

As a legal advocate under supervision of an attorney, you will work closely with other staff members across NWIRP's four offices and community partners in Washington State, providing individual consultations and direct representation to members of immigrant communities in Washington State through various forms of immigration protection, including asylum relief.

Initially, you will be joining NWIRP's WAMASS Unit focusing on providing legal assistance through comprehensive intakes and in some cases providing brief services to immigrant community members who have recently arrived in Washington State and are facing deportation proceedings.

ABOUT NORTHWEST IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT:

Founded in 1984, Northwest Immigrant Rights Project (NWIRP) is a nationally-recognized legal services organization on the front lines of defending and advancing the rights of immigrants. With over 200 employees, NWIRP provides direct legal representation and assistance in immigration matters to thousands of people with low incomes who come from over 150 countries and speak over 60 different languages.

NWIRP challenges unjust policies through high-impact lawsuits and advocates for laws and policies that respect the rights of immigrants. NWIRP is also a trusted provider of immigration-related community education for immigrant communities and social service providers. NWIRP serves the community through four offices in Washington State (Granger, Seattle, Tacoma and Wenatchee), but the impact of our work is felt nationwide.

NWIRP's Wenatchee Office is located in the heart of Washington State, nestled in the foothills of the Cascade mountain range, and at the confluence of the Columbia and Wenatchee Rivers. The Greater Wenatchee area is home to 116,000 residents. With its scenic orchards and growing wine industry, Wenatchee also boasts easy access to rivers, lakes, hiking trails, and its own downhill ski resort, Mission Ridge. The current staff of 16 serves clients from Central and Northeastern Washington and its client base consists largely of farmworkers and their families.

NWIRP's WAMASS Unit is an organization-wide unit that conducts comprehensive intakes with the purpose of providing limited legal representation to newly arrived migrants through the Washington Migrant and Asylum Seeker Support program or WAMASS program. WAMASS is a universal services model consisting of case management, housing, and legal services that include accessible legal-clinics, consultations, and brief services to immigrant community members who are facing deportation. NWIRP's brief services include intakes and consultations.
